FROM THE DEAD POET.

Grandville Correspondent the Possessor of a Whittier Autograph Letter. GHANDVILLE, Sept. 10 .- "Thy Friend." Sefore me in quaint penmanship are the above words, written by him whom auqua, I listened to the thrilling "Voices of Freedom," and learned to love the brave singer who sent them ringing through the land. As the years crept on and life's changing billows whirled me out on its great sea, I came to owe much to the wise, tender poet, and when in my cottage on the shore of Little Traverse bay I read that Whittier had entered his seventieth year my heart misgave me lest he might pass away and never know of the good his work had wrought within my soul. So wrote him a humble message of thanks, half fearing that he would think me over bold. I did not presume to ask or even think of receiving an answer. Time went by and a day came finding me full of unrest and fretted by petty cares. Not one bit of blue sky; nothing but heavy gray clouds in my mental firmament, when just as night's curtain fell over hill, bay and lake a letter was handed me. Opened and hastily scanned, when lot a miracle took place! Instead of gray clouds, God's tender blue, my unrest gone, the fret and wear of daily routine vanished. The simply great Quaker bard had answered my humble message! More precious than gold was the lesson won, Too Quick second, Aurora third; of humility and regard for the "small, sweet courtesies" of life which his let-ter contained. MOTHER'S PRIDE. Fall

The Beautiful Child of a Well-Known Lady.

Startling and Alarming Condition Suddenly Developed.

Beyond All Hope and Skill of the Doctors.

The most beautiful and lovable thing on earth is a little child; is it any wonder that the heart aches hardest when the little one, the brightest star in the world's ornaments, suffers in the grasp of a terrible disease.

All can therefore understand the bitter and heart-telt grief of Mrs. H. H. Watson of No. 153 Bloomingdale street, Wordester, Mass., when her darling lit tle t-year old child, a child of most singular sweetness and beauty, was seized with severe and serious nervous disease, and parents alone can appreciate the depth of her joy and thankfulness when the little idol of her heart was suddenly snatched back from the grave, as it were, after doctors and friends had given up all hope. We will let the happy mother tell the

"My little daughter, Ethel May, was terribly and alarmingly sick. She had twenty-six convulsions in two years. Her nerves were very weak, her appe tite very bad; she could not sleep nights, her limbs would draw up, and she suffered, oh, so much! She was as vellow as saffron, and weak and deli-

LITTLE ETHEL MAY WATSON. Another grateful mother is Mrs. Henry Fry, who resides at No. 4 Flint Piace, South Boston, Mass. She too had a daughter who suffered terribly from St. Vitus Dance, an alarming nervous affection, but by the same marvellous remedy, her child has also been restored to perfect health. Here is what she says:

"My daughter, 12 years old, became effected with St. Vitus Dance. I at once placed her under the care of physicians at the Boston Dispensary, where she was treated for three months. grew worse until she entirely lost her speech, and the right arm became useess. I tried other remedies without

With such evidence of the marvelous power to cure disease that Dr. Greene's Nervurs blood and nerve remedy possesses, no mother who regards the well-fare of her child will hesitate for an instant to give it this great medicine. A cure is sure. The remedy can be got at the druggists', and is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless to give to children of any age. It is the prescription and discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, the eminent specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, who can be consulted free in regard to any case, personally or by letter.
